SALTUS YEARBOOK

1993-94

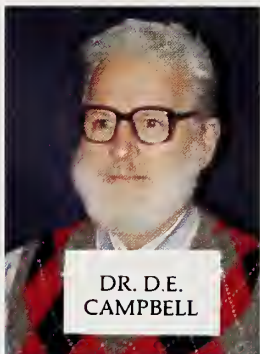

THE HEADMASTER-J.K. MCPHEE

MR. G.
TITTERTON

DR. D.E.
CAMPBELL

MR. L.E. SIMMONS

FROM THE HEADMASTER

The Trustees of Saltus Grammar School, with a variety of professional expertise in their various fields allied to a wealth of experience, have a particularly important role to play in ensuring that our school remains true to its past whilst providing an education that is entirely relevant to the needs of the students in the context of modern Bermuda and the world at large.

In late May of this year, the Chairman of the Trustees, Mr. David Anfossi, stood down after nine years in that position. During his tenure he has presided over a greater period of significant educational, physical and curricular change than has occurred at any other time in the school's history.

Mr. Anfossi, I am pleased to relate, remains a trustee, but as he relinquishes the reins of the Chairmanship this is an appropriate moment to thank him for the many hours he has so freely given in our service in the very best traditions of volunteer contributors over the years.

Mr. Anfossi is succeeded as chairman by Mr. James Amos, who has been a Trustee for ten years. I congratulate him on his appointment, I know he will have the backing of us all in a position that is so crucial for the school, and I wish him every success in the years ahead.

"GOOSE" GOSLING AT CAVENDISH

Message from Mr. James Amos who has now succeeded Mr. David Anfossi as Chairman of the Trustees.

Saltus Grammar School, now 106 years old, consists of much more than buildings, having a lifeblood made up of students with great potential for the future, a dedicated group of teachers, alumni with strong affection for the school in which they spent their formative years, parents with high expectations for their children and also, of course, Trustees.

Over the ten years that I have served as a Trustee, the Trustee body has never been more acutely aware than now, given the strong challenges facing us today, of our ever increasing responsibility as an independent and now co-educational school in our small, professionally demanding community.

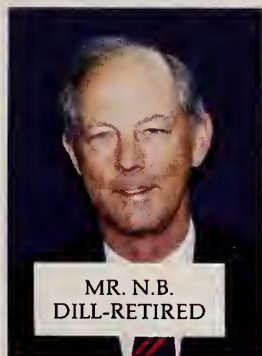

The challenges to our lifeblood are indeed numerous and it is imperative that we all, during our relatively short association with the school, seize our window of opportunity and do all that we can to sustain the life that is Saltus. We must continue to meet the expectation that Saltus will prepare your sons and daughters fully to cope with their future and the decisions they will have to face beyond their formative years at Saltus Grammar School.

The Royal Visil

On Wednesday we went to see the Queen. We went on a bus to Albury's Point. We waited quite a while. A few minutes later some police came in on their bikes. Behind them was the Governor. He parked so Queen Elizabeth and Prince Philip could get in the car. Then the sailors came in and did some things. Soon the Queen came in and Prince
Philip got in the car and drove away.

THE RAINFOREST A delicate balance.

In the rain forest
The rain forest is disappearing every day We need the rain forest and trees because they make oxygen to breath and wild animals need homes like birds and like parrots and like cheetahs and like racons If you cut down a tree plant a tree.

A High Adventure

I'm in a balloon, flying over the rainforest. Down below I can see the thick green leaves of the trees. As the balloon got lower, I can look through the upper canopy and see a clouded leopard chasing a deer. Then an eagle swooped past. The balloon began to drift towards a big dark cloud, so its time for me to head home.

Adam Connolly

A Rainforest Adventure

I am a scarlet macaw, and I live in the rainforest. It is fun swooping around, but I have to be careful of eagles, hawks, gulp, and people. People are cutting down our trees so we have to move away. Suddenly I spied an eagle, so I swooped down into the canopy. He soared into the sky. I saw my son, so I flew to him and said, "Catch me if you can."

Alexander Melvin

Sometime in June a man named Billy James was hired as a Private Detective explorer. A big man not scared of anything. He was hired to find out if there were any Aye Aye lemurs left in the Madagascar rainforest. These animals are thought to be extinct. Billy James got together all the food and equipment that he needed. He started out to look for the lemurs on a very rainy day. He looked high in the rocky area, low down in the valleys and caves and into the deepest thickest part of the forest but he could not find the Aye Aye lemur. Billy James had been searching for 3 weeks and was very tired and about ready to give up. James figured he would give it another day, and if he didn't find the Aye Aye lemur he would say that it was extinct.

On the last day James searched very hard and he found nothing. That night after dinner Billy James and his men were packing up their gear and suddenly behind the fire James noticed 8 pairs of eyes and they all thought-could it be? So James got two men to go around behind them with nets. Suddenly the eyes started getting closer and then James and his men couldn't believe what they saw. It was four pairs of aye aye lemurs. Everyone was so happy that they are not extinct and pledged to each other that they would help protect the lemurs for life.

Billy West

Rainforests are disappearing, so don't cut them down!

A lot of animals live in the trees and don't want to live in a town.

I would like to see people leave the rainforest alone. Now I see them building with cement and stone. Forests give us oxygen so we can breathe good air. Once all the trees are gone there will be nobody to care.

Rainforests can give us medicine to keep us feeling good.

Earth needs the trees for other things besides wood.

Stop cutting, chopping and burning the trees.

Together we can work to save the rainforest.

Please

Rainforest dripping wet
Amazon River sparkling in the sunlight
I feel so sad that it will Never be the same again.
Fires burning
Open spaces where trees used to be Recycling can help save the rainforest if we Each do our best to save the Slithery snakes and Towering trees above us.

Adam Roe

Rich soil on the forest floor
A frog leaps through his door
I see a monkey climbing in a tree
Near a tree animals come to me
Footprints from a deer I hear
Over the canopy the sky is clear
Ripe berries fall to the ground
Eaten by any animal around
Sun rays are sometimes hidden
To chop down a tree is forbidden.

Thomas Edwards

Rainforests are green and very dark
And block the sun not like a park
In the forest animals hide
Near the river deep and wide
Far away it will flow
Open your eyes and let the trees grow
Recycle and let us make a start
Everybody do your part!
Save the trees and save the world
Tomorrow is for boys and girls

Adrian Dak

One day the animals in the rainforest were playing together. They suddenly heard a loud noise. They saw four men with chain saws and machetes. They were coming to chop down the trees. The parrot was having a lot of fun and flew over one of the men and stole his hat. He flew out of the rainforest with the man chasing him. The parrot found a pit and buried the hat in it. When the man got there he tried poking around for it but fell in.

One other man wondered where their friend had gone. They set off to look for him but on their way a snake jumped up and tripped him up. When they got up a huge orangutan jumped out and picked them up one by one and threw them out of the rain forest. Then they heard their friend shouting for help so they ran and got a rope out of their pocket and used it to get him out. When he was out all the men were so scared they left the rainforest and never came back.

James Bergh.

A Butterfly's Story

Deep in the rainforest where I live, it's a beautiful place. One day, when I woke up, I heard a growling noise. It got closer and closer! All the animals were very scared and they flew from tree to tree. I spread my bright red wings and flapped away. I saw a big yellow thing which looked like a dragon. It kept eating the trees, and my home fell down. I have nowhere to live now, and I am very sad.

Sam Riihilouma

Hi my name is Ricardo I am an explorer in the Amazon rainforest. I am here to explore the last Harpy Eagle. So off we go to explore! First we have to locate it. There it is!

I can see it flying around with the Toucans and Butterflies. The last time I came I saw hundreds of them but since the rainforests are being cut down it has no home. Oh there he is resting on the branch, he looks lost. I went up the tree to get a snapshot of him. Snap! I went down to take a closer look at my photograph. Suddenly the eagle came down onto my shoulder and said, "Can I be your friend." I wonder if he will be here next time I come?

HELLO

Mr Allen joined the staff in January as the new J6 teacher. After teaching in England, Mr Allen came to Bermuda in 1971 where he taught in the Government system for 21 years, specializing in physical education.

As a professional swim coach, he spends most of his spare time around the pool during the summer months, but in quieter times he likes to read, jog, and play golf.

Mrs Hall studied music and education at London and Reading Universities and taught in England before taking up the Senior Music teacher position at Bermuda High School in 1979.

She left this post after seven years and taught privately before returning to the Primary department. She plays piano, violin, recorder and clarinet and is taking cello lessons. She has two daughters-Lucy 6, and Rosie 4.

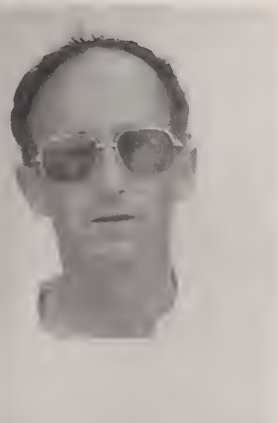

After six happy years of teaching J4 at Saltus Junior School, Mrs Ford will be leaving Bermuda this summer and relocating with her husband in Shropshire, England. Though she will miss the school, Mrs Ford expects to be very busy following the arrival of her first baby in July. She has fond memories of all the students, staff and parents of Saltus and wishes everyone the very best for the future.

We are sorry that we must say good-bye to Mrs Palmer. She has spent three busy years with us and with much energy and enthusiasm, has encouraged students to play instruments, sing lustily and participate in the Summer Concerts and Christmas Shows. She has also introduced our students to a wide range of musical compositions and thus laid a firm foundation for music appreciation in later life. She has willingly shared her many musical talents with other Saltus departments sometimes playing the bassoon, viola, saxophone or clarinet and also singing in choral groups.

We wish her much success in her future musical endeavors.

Gwynne "Sprake" Williams left at Christmas after a four term tenure at Saltus. Mr Williams taught at Mount Saint Agnes Academy for many years and has departed for Florida with his wife Muriel and two children. We wish Mr Williams all the best in the future.

MUSIC REPORT 1993-1994

Once again, we have had an active and productive year in the music department. We have a strong instrumental programme and a large number of children who have participated in the many musical events which have taken place, both in and out of school.

For our Christmas production, we enjoyed using a not so traditional version of the traditional Christmas story! A large choir of more than fifty J6s and J7s had great fun singing the 'Christmas Jazz,' and they certainly looked the part in their striking red choir robes. The five angels also captivated the audiences with their beautiful singing of 'The Magnificat.' The school also had the opportunity to remember the Christmas message at our Carol Service in St John's Church. The J6s wrote the Christmas story in their own words and each passage was read by children from the J4s and J5s. A tableau was formed at the front of the church and the Junior band completed the service with two seasonal numbers. It was a very special occasion, much enjoyed by all and much credit goes to all the children who contributed to it. We are always keen for the children to perform for the Community and J6W were very pleased to go to sing for "The American Ladies International" Christmas breakfast. They sang a selection of some sixteen songs and carols which seemed to be very much appreciated.

Our House Choral Competition was as close as ever, with all houses giving creditable performances. The positions changed after the Senior Choirs and finally Butterfield managed to 'out sing' Watlington! Well done, Butterfield.

The Summer Concert was enjoyed once again, by performers and audiences alike. The standard of ensemble playing is always increasing and the number of groups playing reflects the wide interest and commitment shown by so many of the children. The 100 strong choir of J4s and J5s got right into the spirit of "Hamelin Town" and their performances were lively and amusing.

We welcome visits by musicians from overseas and this year we have benefitted from the visits of two Canadian bands and a handbell choir from Pennsylvania. Handchimes are a new venture for us at Saltus and the children have all had an opportunity to try playing them in class music lessons. The concert by the 'La Sonnet' bell choir had the children spellbound and then our own two choirs (J7s), had a workshop session with them afterwards.

The children were very excited by the visit and are keen to continue ringing and to improve. Perhaps there'll be an overseas tour by the Saltus ringers sometime . . .!

Throughout the year we have had some very creditable results in the Associated Board practical and theory exams and many children have performed for the school in Assembly.

So, Saltus Junior Music continues to thrive. However, none of the performances, visits, shows, concerts could take place without the support of the many dedicated music teachers who are involved in the Department on a weekly basis; to all who contribute to our music programme-a very big "thank you!"

High Flying Fives

If I were a cloud,
I would shout aloud
If no one came near
I suppose no one would hear
It would be so clear
Being up so high would give me a fear
I would be so high up in the sky !
I would be so soft and puffy just like a little puppy
If I were a cloud.

Katie Shaw

Way, way, way, up high
Are the clouds in the sky.
Oh, how I wish I could go
To where they make the snow
I closed my eyes and poof !
Was it a goof ?
I was up in the sky
Way up high riding on a cloud
I was very proud
To be up in the sky
Way up high.

It was very very soggy
Not to mention foggy
I jumped from cloud to cloud,
Then.....

Not, not, not up high
Not, not in the sky
But down below,
Not where they make the snow
I thought it better,
Not to go where it's wetter !

Joshua Masters.

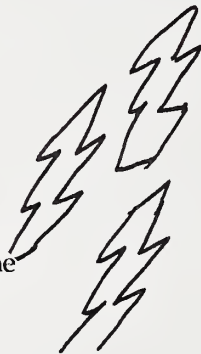

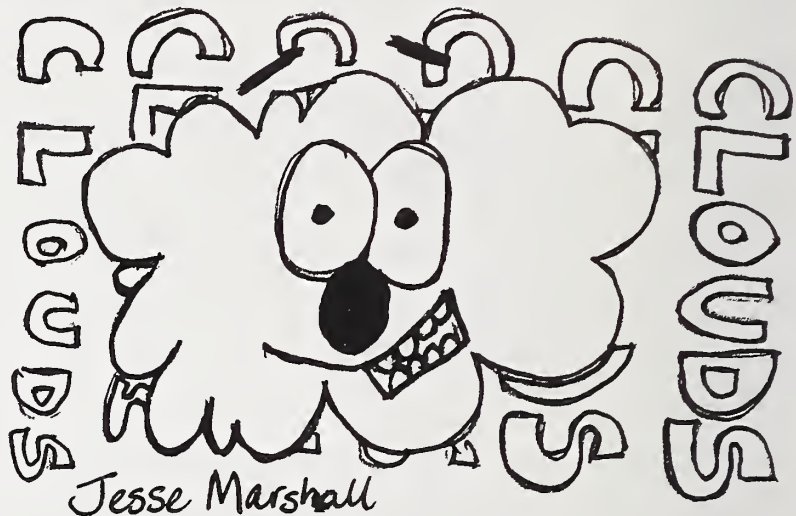

Clouds are fluffy, puffy and they fly across the blue sky
Lovely and soft they live up in the bright sky

Over the tall house tops they fly in the wonderful sky
Umbrellas are needed when rain comes from the sky
Daredevil shapes and animals in the fabulous sky
Soaring high up in the great, beautiful sky.

Paul Howard

Joshua Masters

Today I was gliding through the sky
You couldn't say I didn't try
The cloud picked me up by the hair or my thigh,
By accident she dropped water in my eye
She said and she said, "Please don't cry."
So I just said, "Get on with the ride !"
The ride was bumpy so she started to cry.
So all the people did not stay dry.

David Boyce

Clouds are found in the blue sky
Lightning is made by clouds
Once in a while clouds change their place
Up in the sky the clouds go grey
Drops of rain fall on Earth
Some clouds change their colour

Alexander Collis

Clouds are huge
Clouds are bright
Clouds are puffy and sparkling white
They look soft so high in the sky.
Some look like dragons
I wish I could fly.

Matthew Spurway

Clouds are like fluffy marshmallows
Living in the bright blue sky
Over the tall hills they fly.
Under and over
Down and up
Soaring high.

Mark Mitchell

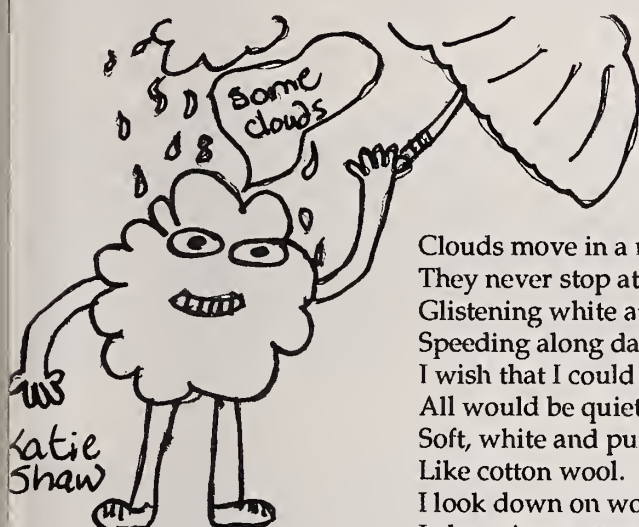

On top of a cloud way up high
 Above all the world in the sky
 Floating under a rainbow, way up high
 Floating around in the breeze way up high
 Back and forth, up and down, round and round
 Looking down on all the world
 It's just too bad it can't last forever.

Brian Steinhoff

I wonder what it would be like
 To be high in the sky white and bright
 No one to boss me around
 When I cry I give people a shower
 Sometimes I get mad and thunder is about.
 Sometimes I'm in the sky as fine as can be.

James Smith

Clouds move in a mysterious way,
 They never stop at all and stay,
 Glistening white at a high height,
 Speeding along day and night.
 I wish that I could sit upon a cloud,
 All would be quiet but the wind that's loud
 Soft, white and puffy it feels Like cotton wool.
 I look down on woods and fields
 Lakes, rivers, streams and brooks
 How pretty everything looks.
 Then I go soaring, soaring down
 And land safely on the ground.

Christopher Astwood

Clouds float like children's minds
 Like people like friends
 Over the sea of blue
 Underneath they see people like me
 Day after day
 Skies are their world

Mark Morrison

Clouds soar in the beautiful sky
 Laugh at the people below
 Open to make shapes
 Undo to make more beautiful shapes
 Daredevil across the sky
 Saltus looks at the clouds up high

Jordan Monkman

Fluffy, snowy, huge
 Gliding, dashing, rushing
 Clouds make me feel like I am running in thin air
 I wonder what the life of a cloud is like.

Anthony Smith

Clouds are condensation and they make precipitation
 Light and water make the clouds
 Oh how white and grey they are !
 Upside down they still are fluffy
 Ducks fly through them
 Soaring and floating above all the world

Collin Collins

Clouds are shapes in the sky
 Large and fluffy
 Oh they want to make me to fly
 Up and down they glide
 Down here we stare at the Shapes we make up.

Keino Williams

Shaped, fluffy and puffy
 Racing, soaring, playing
 Clouds make me feel like I'm flying
 I wonder why they fly so high in the sky?

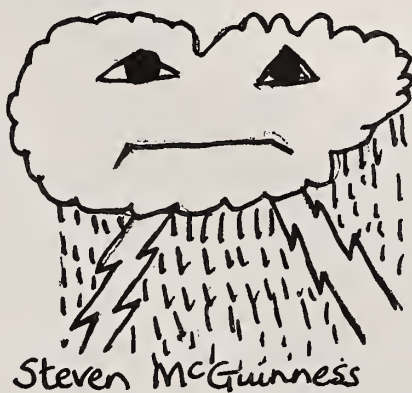

Paul Howard

Clouds, areas white as snow
 Living the bright sky
 Over the deep blue sea they flow
 Under the sky they look as white as the first snowflake that ever fell
 Down beneath the sea
 Fish wish that tomorrow
 would be as good as today
 So you see, this is the life of the cloud.

Bryen Hill

Clouds make me feel happy
 Like a pillow in the sky
 Over the world so high
 Under the clouds I lie
 Doing what I want

Ian Morrell

Colourful, fluffy, huge
 Flying freely, soaring, bobbing along
 I wish I could fly too
 Do you like it up there ?

Chris Conway

My dream for my community is for people to be less violent for example, I heard a child screaming the child might have been beaten or been hurt and was sorry for it.

My dream for my country is for everybody to support each others human rights. For people to be thankful for this beautiful island. We have to stop polluting our wonderful beaches.

My dream for the world is to be peace in every country. I think that everybody should work for money instead of being lazy and asking for money. I wish there was less violence.

1993/94 Sports Report

Saltus Junior School students continue to enjoy the varied sports programme on offer with a strong emphasis upon healthy competition in a controlled learning environment. The year produced many notable team and individual successes.

National Competitions

There were several outstanding performances in the individual swimming championships: Graham Smith, Matthew Durrant, Paul Fox, Ben Pewter, Jesse Marshall, Alexander Collis, Oscar Deuss, Robin Massey, Paul Murphy, Kevin Fox and Timothy Burland collected no less than 18 medals between them. Our top performers were Graham Smith who came 1st in both the Under 11 breaststroke and freestyle, and third in the backstroke, and Paul Murphy who came first in both the Under 10 freestyle and butterfly, and second in the breaststroke.

In the boys team relay championships we were edged out for the first time in 13 years by Port Royal. It was a disqualification which cost us the trophy rather than being out swum. Next year we are determined to make up for it!

The Soccer squad experienced mixed fortunes. The six-a-side B Team of Colin Brown, Phillip Rego, Robin Massey, Travis Tucker, Andrew Rawson, Justin Kempe, Chris Brough, and Jesse Marshall made it through to the finals finishing with two wins and two losses. The nine-a-side team found it tough going against perennial stalwarts West Pembroke and Dellwood but performed well.

The boys and girls cross-country teams performed creditably on the difficult Prospect/Arboretum course. Tyler Butterfield ran brilliantly to win the boys Over 10 race with Ben Pewter finishing a creditable 14th. The Under 10 boys team finished in 3rd place overall with Fraser Hunt 4th.

Several of our track and field competitors made it to the finals at the National Stadium. Our top performers were Tyler Butterfield who finished 3rd and 4th in the Under 11 800m and 1500m respectively and Cervio Cox was 2nd in the Under 11 Cricket Ball Throw.

The cricket squad enjoyed a most successful season winning all four league games for the first time ever. In the semi-final we were beaten by a very strong St. David's side by 7 wickets. Our top performers with the bat were Aaron Burrows, Jim West and Captain Phillip Rego. Our top bowlers were Mark Harris and Jim West. Well done cricket squad.

In the National Softball Championships at Bernards Park we finished a creditable third. Our one loss of the day was to the eventual champions West End. Our top performers were pitcher Matthew Durrant, Paul Fox in the field and the side was ably led by Henry-Gordon Masters.

Inter-House Competitions.

The table below shows the respective fortunes of the four houses in this year's sporting competitions:

	1st	2nd	3rd	4th
Swimming	S	D	W	B
Soccer	S	W	B	D
Basketball	W	S	B/D
Cross-Country	B	S	D	W
Sports Day	S	B	W	D
Softball	S	B	D/W
Cricket	B	S	D	W

As more and more girls join the Junior School the Physical Education programme steadily diversifies and expands. In the not too distant future we shall, I am confident, achieve equally levels of success in girls' national competitions.

Once, I was the loneliest kite in the world but listen and I'll tell you how I became popular.

One day, as I was sitting in the Kiteshop window, I saw a little boy looking at me in amazement. "Dad", he cried, "look at that eight foot, diamond multi-coloured kite that has eyes and a mouth! Can we buy it, Dad?"

A few minutes later, I felt myself being lifted from my place and being bought. The boy who bought me was very nice to me, but one day he put me in the basement because he'd got a new 12 foot electronic kite. I was left there for years, untouched and forgotten. Then, one day, I heard the sound of laughing children. "Dad said he had this kite when he was a kid," the boy said. "I bet it's ripped and torn," the girl replied in disgust. They looked around and were surprised when they found me. They said I was wonderful and took me into a whole new world. As they dusted me off, I squinted in the bright sun.

They attached string to me and tied on a fancy tail. I felt myself suddenly being wooshed into the air. That feeling was marvellous, indescribable! In a matter of seconds I was as high as the clouds. I could see for miles and miles, the whole of Bermuda. Then, suddenly I started falling down until a gust of wind caught me.

"That was a close one!" I exclaimed. I sighed with disappointment as the children pulled me down to the ground. They were afraid to let me stay up too long for the first time. The next day the kids took me to a place that was to change my life forever. A school called Saltus Junior School where the kite competition was about to start. As soon as the coach said, "Go!" I zoomed into the air but crashed to the ground. Again I tried and failed, but as they say, third time lucky, I made it on the third try. Most of the others kites were already sky high but I managed to catch up with them. Lots of kites got tangled up and crashed. A few of them broke their string, but that's life. When they finally announced the winners only another kite called Dan and I were still in the air.

Suddenly I heard a snap as Dan started to break away. I thought fast and caught the ailing kite by tying some of my tail on him, then pulled him to the ground. Next I untied his tail and flew back up. Since I was the only kite in the air I won all prizes plus a Bravery badge. When Dan thanked me for saving him, I felt so proud.

Now here I am being marvelled at by a lot of people. "There's the magic kite that saved my kite!" said a nice little boy. This should be a lesson to you. If your life is way down in the cellar, don't lose hope. You could end up being famous, like me!

J6 HIGH FLYERS

Only this morning I was sitting alone on a shelf, deep in a dark musty basement. I was thinking about when I was young. It was marvellous. In my days of glory and splendour, I was a spectacular multi-coloured, five foot Bermuda Kite. "Ah, but now I am old and shabby," I sighed. "I am full of holes and my paper has faded. I doubt I'll ever fly again." I was about to doze off when I heard children's voices.

The voices neared. I became excited. Am I to go out flying again? My splinters stood on end, as I was so excited. The voices neared. Then the door creaked open and light quickly crept over the dark, dust covered room. Two children emerged from the stairway coughing and wheezing as they entered. "Now where's that old kite," one of them said. "Oh, there it is, on that top shelf up there," the other exclaimed. So the second child climbed up on the shelf and took me off gingerly. Then I was shaken and a lot of dust filled the air. The children started coughing and ran upstairs. Oh was it ever good to feel the breeze and breathe fresh air again.

Nicholas Kempe

My name is Dust E. Kite and this is my most frightening adventure. One bright Summer's day as I was flying, I noticed that I was going a bit too high. I was fine until a bird, not seeing my string, collided with me, snapping it in two. I was petrified and soared off, feeling the wind take me. My bright colours gleamed in the sunlight. Below, I could see trees, buildings, birds, fish and all kinds of things. Then it came! Out of nowhere, a huge thunder cloud! The wind picked up as darkness covered the land like a blanket. Thunder rumbled and lightning streaked across the sky. The rain felt like rocks as the drops hit my multi-coloured body. I felt scared but at the same time brave. But then I saw it, or rather felt it! Lightning zapped me! I started falling at an uncanny speed. I fell to the ground, ripped and charred, just before I became unconscious.

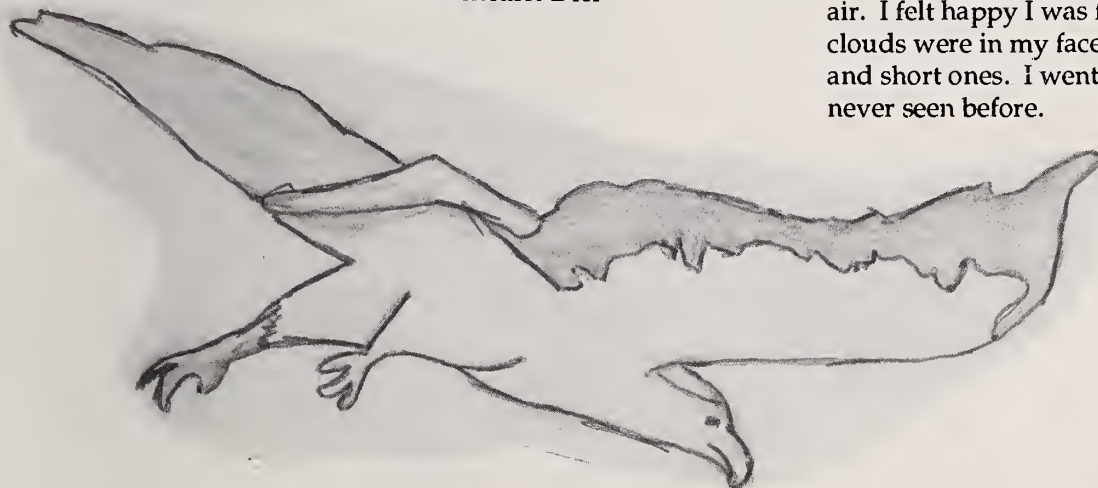

by David Spiering

The youth attached a long line of string to me. He fastened it, then took the line of string all the way to the end of the field. He yelled out to his mum. "Start running!" As she did the wind rushed to me. I was lifted off the ground. My paper made a crackling sound as the wind hit it. I was being lifted off the ground!

It felt wonderful as the wind passed through me. I was getting further and further off the ground. As I was rising I heard laughter below from the boy. He let off some slack so I could fly higher. The whole perspective was amazing. There were forests stretching for miles around. A giant lake stood right in the center, and over there a deer was jumping through the forest. A patch of flowers in the northern direction were astounding. The colours were blue, red and white. It looked like the American Flag. I felt a tug on my string. I was being pulled down. As I was descending I thought how good it felt. Anyway the boy brought me down. He and his mother took me home. But instead of putting me in the basement he took me to his bedroom. He stood me up high. I looked proud. Actually that was the happiest day of my life.

Benedict Dier

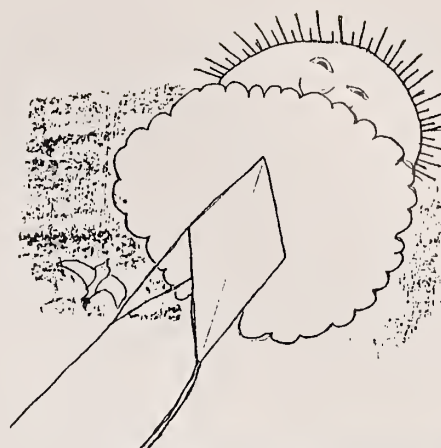

A long time ago I was sitting in the basement with spiders crawling over me. I wished that I could be used again. I heard the door open, down came a man and a boy. The man walked over to the shelf, took me off and said, "Son we need to patch it up."

They carried me up the stairs and into a room with coloured tissue paper all over the floor. they put black and green paper on me and tied some string to me and took me outside.

Matthew Watson

The boy took me downstairs and outside. He began to run and I began to manoeuvre around in the sky. I could feel the wind push against me. I soon was gliding around like a bird. My paper began rippling like the leaves blowing all over the cars. I began to glide down slowly like a feather.

Nicholas Dunkle

Oh the feeling of knowing that your only limit is the flimsy string that you are tied to. You can do anything you want to!

Claire Dorrington

Once I was in the air, I felt much better. I felt the wind vibrate my spine as I scooted along. I got higher and higher. I thought I could see forever!

Eric Deichmann

It was a fabulous ride. I was so high in the air. I felt happy I was free from boredom the clouds were in my face I went over tall buildings and short ones. I went to places that I have never seen before.

Hannah Harrison.

I started to shudder because I was falling to earth at a tremendous speed, then just as I was about to hit the earth Sam made a dive for me and caught me just before I hit the rough brown and hard ground.

Suddenly I heard a snap. I looked at the thread. It had broken! "Oh, No!" I shouted. I was moving backwards the same speed as the wind, about forty miles an hour! I was also slowly going down. Soon I was close enough to the ground to see people walking on the sidewalk beside the road.

Up ahead I could see a house with a pool. Two children were playing with a ball on the grass in front of the house.

"I'm going to crash into that house!" I was ten feet off the ground when I crashed into the house. That's all I can remember.

Alexander Lines.

J7's KEEP THEIR AIR ON

FLIGHT OF THE EAGLE

His eyes darted to and fro,
As he looked down below,
He prepared his wing and raised his beak,
And leapt from atop his snowy peak,
From atop his mountain he had seen his prey,
His family would not go hungry today,
A rabbit napping in the field,
Not knowing that he was to become a meal,
The eagle flew down his wings flapping,
His beak aimed for the rabbit napping,
With his beak that never failed,
He ripped it's belly and devoured it's entrails,
It's heart he took into his beak,
To share with his family among his snowy peak.

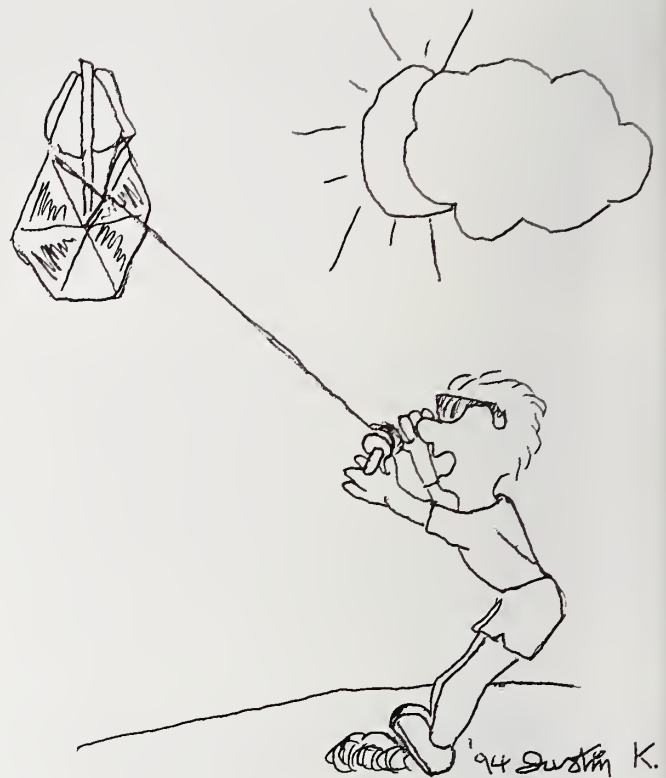

Kieran Bradshaw

THE WRIGHT BROTHERS

The Wright Brothers invented the plane,
When people heard this, they thought it was lame,
But then they proved it really did work,
And the doubters and skeptics,
Could no longer smirk,

Graham Outerbridge

Suddenly I am thrown up into the pale blue sky,
The soft breeze gently pushes me towards the white, puffy clouds.

My long tail twists and twirls below me as I soar up to the sun.

The string now is tight preventing me from escaping,

Oh, how I long to float freely, without string holding me down.

Then I could glide at whatever height I want,
I could do loops and twirls without the string telling me to,

I could go anywhere I want to, without the string telling me the boundaries,

But right now I am a slave to the string,
I must obey its command,

I have no choice.

Laura Schoenberger

Flying High

The runway is cleared,

The early morning sun shines through the cockpit,

The intense pressure in the engines reaches it's peak, I am air borne....

The blue sky stretches across the hemisphere, broken only by wandering clouds.

The hum of the engine is so soothing I can hardly stay awake.

"This is perfection" I think ,

If only I could stay...

Murray Gregorson

JORDAN

CLOUDS

White sheep, white sheep
On a blue hill
When the wind stops
You all stand still
When the wind blows
You walk away slow

THE BALLOON

If I'm too hot I go up,
If I'm too cold I go down,
I come to a mountain I fly over it,
I come to a river I cross it,
I come to a storm I go above it,
I fly one hundred feet above cities,
I soar like a bird of many colours.

Jason Boorman

THE AIR BALLOON

There I sat on the top of the hill gazing aimlessly. Suddenly something caught the corner of my eye. I shifted my weight and slowly turned to face this mysterious object. I just sat there awestruck, wondering what to make of this thing in the distance. I couldn't take my eyes off it. I was so taken in by its brilliant array of colours and how they stood out over the vast green country of nothing but rolling hills and lush grass. The Creature seemed to be growing. It was getting larger by the second.

Justin Kempe

FLIGHT

"R-340 to tower come in tower, " I said into my radio.

"This is the control tower speaking, what is it?"

"Request clearance for take off." I replied.

"Clearance given."

I was in control of the most powerful engine thrusters money can buy, I had total access the the most sophisticated technology in the world, I had data link up with the space probe, I had more number on my dashboard then the national debt, I had in my hands what millions of tax payers had been paying for, I had supreme control over an F-117 Stealth Bomber ! I readied my clutch , strapped on my helmet, adjusted my gear lever, checked my gas meter, brought down the cockpit, turned on my engines and started down the runway.

I was just about to take off when, "Ryan! stop playing that new virtual reality flying and come do your homework !"

"Oh mom !" I got up and turned it off.

Ryan Marshall

Sky Diving

You jump out of the plane and the air hits you like a brick wall. You are falling so fast that you have to pull down your goggles to stop the air from stinging your eyes. Butterflies flutter in your stomach when it's getting nearer the time you see if the parachute works or not.
You pull the rip cord.....

Handbell Choir Visit.

On the last Monday of term, a handbell choir came to the school from Pennsylvania. They were called the 'La Sonnet Bell Choir', which is French for 'bell'. They played five beautiful pieces to the whole school and then both our handchime choirs did a workshop with them. First, we played for the visiting choir - we were quite nervous! We played 'Au Clair de la lune', Oranges and Lemons' and 'The Merry Peasant'. Then the five octave choir showed us how to ring the bells and lots of different things you could play with the bells. Some of them looked very difficult! This was followed by questions and answers and lots of us asked questions. The smallest bells were about 6 inches and the biggest were about 1 foot high! At the end, we were allowed to try their bells. We all had to wear gloves to protect them. Some of them were very heavy but they all make a lovely sound. We really enjoyed it and hope that they come again one day.

DeVon Bins
Head Boy

To explain how it felt to be chosen Head Boy of Saltus would be impossible. I considered the position a task that would benefit me much more later in life than I actually realized. I believe that taking on the role as Head Boy has added an extra-dimension to my maturity and made me even more aware of my responsibilities.

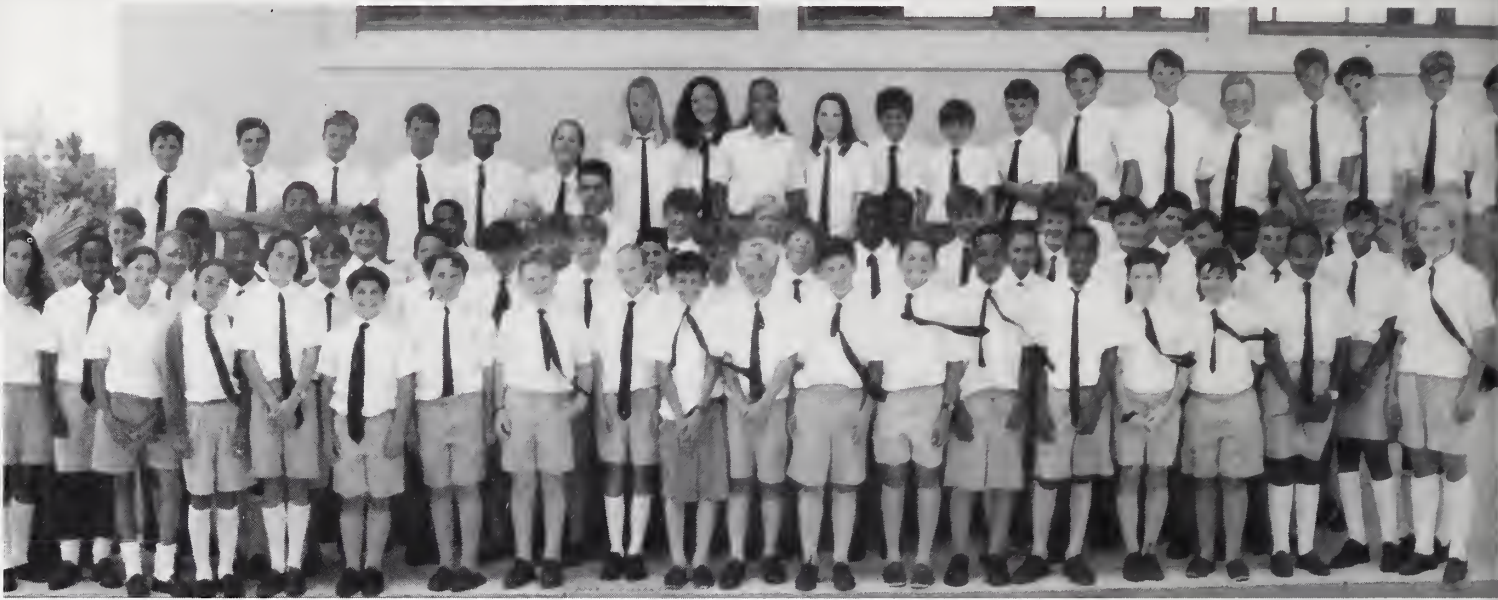

I owe a special token of appreciation to the staff who believed in me and allowed me to bring out the best in myself. I have been thoroughly supported throughout this last academic year, not only by all members of the staff but also by the whole student body which has made my job all that much easier. Thank you all.

I would also like to wish, not only next year's PGY but all of the PGY's of the future, all the luck in the world. If I were to leave you with one more word of wisdom it would be that all you have to do in life is aim high and don't give up, even if along the way you do not achieve a particular goal, the experience gained from trying can never be considered a failure.

SENIOR SCHOOL MUSIC REPORT 1993-94

In my first Saltus Yearbook report, I should like to take this opportunity to thank Mr. William Duncan for all his hard work during the 24 years he spent at Saltus. His foresight has enabled the school to offer a comprehensive music programme which includes private instrumental tuition, the rental of instruments, opportunities for ensemble playing, classroom music, a music GCSE option and a music minor at the PGY level.

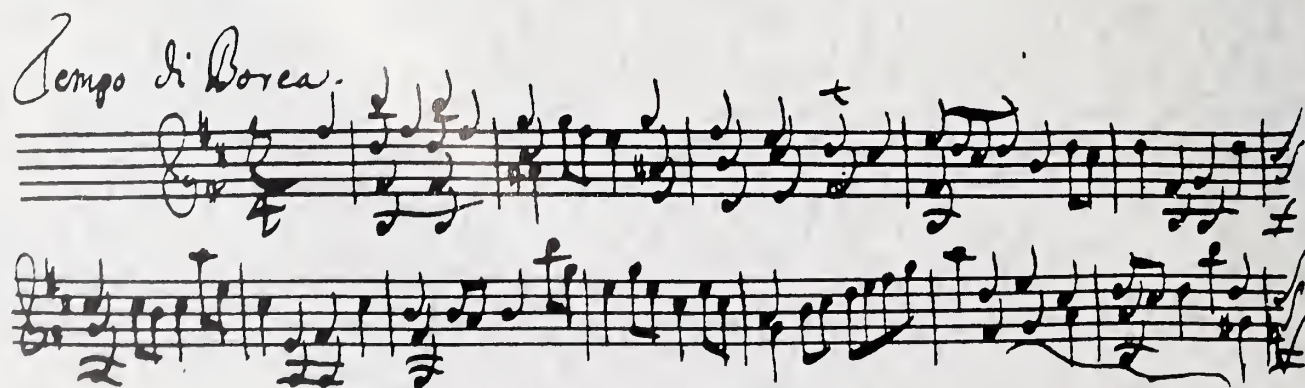

We have had many opportunities to perform both within the school setting and in the wider community. The Saltus Brass Ensemble, Saltus Wind Band and String Orchestra have made many appearances. Our thanks go to Mr. McPhee and members of staff who have supported our efforts by attending the performances. Saltus string students involved in the Menuhin Foundation programme performed at the Premier's concert at City Hall and again during the Queen's visit to City Hall. Two of our senior 5 students, Wesley Hall and Douglas Jones, had an opportunity to play keyboard and saxophone at the Nelson Mandela celebration held on the City Hall steps. They also performed at the Youth Heritage Service in Victoria Park.

Staff and friends gathered at St. John's Church for another Carols for All. The performance was videotaped and telecast twice during the Christmas season.

The Saltus Concert Society presented two outstanding programmes at St. John's Church. Carolyn Burr from the Menuhin Foundation, performed the Bach A minor violin concerto, and Lisa Wyatt performed the Lovreglio Fantasia for clarinet at the November concert. Our visiting artist was the Bermudian tenor, Brian Semos. At the April concert Baroque music was featured including a Galliard bassoon concerto performed by Mary Palmer, a Tartini clarinet concerto played by Hywel Brown and Brandenburg Concerto No. 4 with Suzanne Dunkerley, Susan Hall and Adrian Hall as soloists.

We added two concerts to our performance calendar this year. In late October, staff and friends presented an evening of fine music at Woodlands. In late May, the String Orchestra, Junior School Handchime Choir and senior solo instrumentalists performed in the beautifully restored room at Woodlands.

Mr. Alan Furness, Brass Teacher and Miss Lisa Wyatt, Woodwind Teacher have made outstanding contributions in the areas of individual instrumental tuition and the conducting of ensembles. Mrs. Mary Palmer has joined us in many of our performances during her three years with us. Unfortunately, we must say good-bye to her, sincerely thank her and wish her much success in her future endeavours in the United Kingdom.

SALTUS WIND BAND

Fresh from their summer break, members of Saltus Wind Band were rehearsing earlier on Tuesday mornings, before school. Their commitment throughout the year resulted in a highly successful concert given in the school hall at the end of the Spring Term. A variety of ensembles played music ranging from classical to jazz and arrangements of more popular songs. A note of appreciation must also go to the audience whose percussive abilities added to the enjoyment of the concert!

During the school year, students have also been able to give pleasure to the public. The Woodwind Ensemble performed in the Premier's concert at City Hall and for the Pilot Club charity in the Anglican Cathedral.

The Wind Band gained further experience by playing for the final assembly of the Autumn Term and used a mixed repertoire to entertain a number of elderly people at Campden, during the Premier's tea party.

Hywel Brown had the opportunity to perform the Tartini concertino with the Saltus Concert Society Orchestra, which earned him admiration from the audience in St. John's Church.

The final concert of the school year was given by woodwind players at the English Speaking Union, to a small but enthusiastic group of music lovers. The refreshments afterwards were greatly appreciated by the thirsty players, who had rehearsed hard to provide an excellent standard of chamber music.

1st XI Soccer

Back row l to r: R. Carruthers, J. Wheddon, A. Atiba, D. Fubler, D. Faria, R. Shakir (co-capt.), O. Shakir, J. Best, A. Bean
Front: C. Brown, V. Williams-Shavery, M. Hocking, D. Binns (Capt.), T. Tucker, R. Matcham, S. Fahy

The 1st XI enjoyed a very successful season. They played 11 games winning 6 and drawing 1; finishing 4th in the inter-school league.

Team captain DeVon Binns had a terrifically positive effect on the team, and thus it was a great pity to lose him towards the end of the season with a broken leg. Omar Shakir also suffered a serious injury in the same game.

It is a credit to vice-captain Rajee Shakir that he led the team to perform well in their remaining games.

Danny Faria's ability in goal gave the team its confidence to enjoy playing. Andre Bean showed great potential as he marshalled a defense involving Matthew Hocking, Rajee, Craig Brown, Julian Wheddon and Daryl Fubler.

Vincent Williams-Savery ran the mid-field with Toks Atiba. In different games they were joined by Stephen Fahy, Andre, Rajee, Omar, Tim Furr, Treadwell Tucker, DeVon and Ricky Carruthers.

John Best fuelled his legend as a scoring machine as he once again finished as the leading goal scorer. He found good striking partners in DeVon and Ryan Matcham.

The Paul Handsley Memorial Trophy for the MVP was awarded to DeVon. Colours were re-awarded to: DeVon Andre, Rajee, Daryl, Julian, Vincent, Toks, Omar, John and Tim. New colours: Matthew, Stephen, Ryan, Ricky, Treadwell, Craig and Danny.

Intermediate X1

With only two players left from last year's team, this was a year of rebuilding. This task fell largely on the previous year's successful under-13 team.

Due to their effort and enthusiasm the team has made considerable progress and we expect much from them in future years. Stalwart defender, Richard King was voted the team's M.V.P.

Junior X1

The Juniors finished the season with a record of 4 wins and 3 losses. They did well to reach the semi-final of the lug. Unfortunately, they lost narrowly at that stage.

The team shows great promise, and as a few are still Juniors next year we expect much from them.

Kevin Richards did an outstanding job on and off the field as captain, and was voted the team's M.V.P.

Girls Soccer

Saltus played interschool games for the first time this year and performed very well. The seniors tied 1-1 with Berkeley with Melissa Butler scoring for Saltus. The girls participated in a 3 team tournament at Warwick Academy and recorded 2 more draws.

The 1st and 2nd year girls played an U.13 girls team from PHC and beat them 2-0 with goals from Lindsay Sims and Micha Simons. PGY girls played a "pick of the rest" of the school. An excellent game of soccer saw the PGY side win by a score of 2-0. Goals were scored by Melissa Butler and Rachel Troake. Mr. Timothy looks forward to an even better season next year.

Seniors

Basketball dominated the Easter term with our senior side enjoying another excellent season. We won the Chaffee tournament defeating the U.S. base school from Cuba in the final. Throughout the tournament the team seemed happy to work at come-from-behind victories, presumably to make the games more exciting.

We also reached the final of the B.S.S.F. tournament. This time we were unable to come back, and narrowly lost to M.S.A.-a side we had beaten in two previous games.

The regular season saw us win 7 and lost 1. Coach Tim Trott again did an excellent job, getting the most from our players throughout the season.

Danny Faria and Adam Davis were excellent as captains. Danny's assistance—even with the "showboating" paved the way to many a victory, and Adam was always consistent as a guard or a forward.

Big Nick Fagundo had his best season whilst Toks Atiba and Charlie Judd developed into seasoned players. Herbie may not have had the playing time his fans demanded (!) but as always he was a splendid competitor. David "Samauri" Smolin developed into one of our better players, whilst Greg Farrington is now showing real potential.

Johnny Andrews and Craig Brown were content to get playing time whenever possible and never let us down. Andre Bean showed his true ability in this his first year at senior level as he finished as the M.V.P. at the Chaffee tournament; and our M.V.P. of the season. Colours Re-awarded: Nick Fagundo, James Adderley, Adam Davis, Toks Atiba and Charlie Judd. New: Danny Faria, Andre Bean, David Smolin, John Andrews, Craig Brown, Greg Farrington.

SENIOR GIRLS BASKETBALL

Senior Girls

In a depleted season this year, our senior girls played 4 games, marginally losing 3 and narrowly winning 1. Their best result came in the Chaffee Tournament when they lost a very exciting game to the U.S. Base School from Cuba in the final.

The team, under coach Roderick Spencer, reached the semi-finals in the B.S.S.F. Inter-school Tournament. They won their first game in convincing fashion, but then lost their second game by 1 point to the eventual runners' up.

Team members: Lisa Haynes, Simieon Massey, Alex Tytheridge, Suzanne Rego, Tracy Osborne, Shallan Dennis, Samantha Adams and Jennie Medeiros.

badminton

Our boys again finished as the champion school in the inter-school tournament. The Junior doubles final was won by Julian Wozniak and Andrew Watson, who beat John Hindess and Nick Kyme in the final. Nick went to win the singles final. Hywel Brown won the under-15 singles title, and teamed up with Stephen Troake to win the doubles.

Richard Pereech lost in the singles final, then teamed up with Danny Faria in the doubles. Again they narrowly lost in the final.

Our girls finished in second place overall. Selena Mello won the U-15 singles and teamed up with Leigh-Anne Shaw to win in the doubles.

Tracy Osborne and Carola Cooper were runners-up in the senior doubles.

JUNIOR BOYS BASKETBALL

Juniors

The Juniors consistently made life exciting. They either threw away huge leads, or made up seemingly impossible deficits. They won 5 games and lost 3. Despite Mr. Beard's soaring blood pressure they played well and show great promise for the future.

Sean Durkin and Damian Simmons led the side by example whilst Jason Farrington's performances resulted in him finishing as high point scorer and M.V.P.

Junior Girls Basketball

The squad was a good balance of experienced and novice players; it was captained by Caroline Black who was an All Star last year. It was particularly pleasing to see a confident air about the team especially at the free throw line and in the final minutes of a game. The first friendly game saw the only loss of the season to M.S.A. but the objective of giving the whole squad a reasonable amount of playing time was met. The squad progressed smoothly to the B.S.S.F. tournament final, where they sought to defend last year's title, against M.S.A. The game was a tense thriller with neither team ever able to open a commanding lead. With just under a minute left Saltus were 2 points down, however two excellently engineered drives to the basket by Emily Black gave Saltus a well deserved victory. Once again the success gained was due to the efforts of all and I hope that this year's inexperienced players will be able to step up next year and become the experienced leaders of the team.

Interschool Cross Country

In the U.13 category SUELLA MATTHEWS & ELISHA MILLER finished six seconds apart to claim the gold and silver respectively, and led the Saltus team to third place overall.

The U.15 girls placed 4th overall in their age group. Saltus' strongest finisher was ANA ANTON.

The 15 & Over girls also placed 4th overall. MANDY OATLEY lead the Saltus team.

BOYS

Tremendous team performances resulted in all of our teams winning medals.

SPENCER BUTTERFIELD stayed off a scrambler for long enough to show his terrific potential as he finished in 3rd place. KEVIN RICHARDS was 7th, NICK KYME 13th, SEAMUS DURKIN 14th, KEITH CAINES 21st and JULIAN WOZNIAK 23rd. The team finished first place overall.

Gutsy running from our young intermediate team earned them 3rd place overall. DAMIAN SIMMONS was our top finisher in 9th place.

The senior boys, not to be outdone, worked hard and finished second overall. STEPHEN FAHY showed his terrific all-round ability to finish in 4th place.

Stephen Fahy

Interhouse Cross Country

SUELLA MATTHEWS won the U.15 girls race for Watlington smashing the old record of 15:24 (Samantha Adams) by over two minutes. Her time was 12:46. ELISHA MILLER was 2nd in 13:06 and CAROLINE DAVIES was 3rd. Miller and Davies were also within the old record time.

SPENCER BUTTERFIELD won the U.13 Boys age group in 12:02. Darrell's STEPHEN TROAKE finished 1st in the U.15 Boys division. STEPHEN FAHY won the 15 & over boys race.

Boys Volleyball

Seniors

Led by Danny Faria our senior team had an excellent season. In an exciting inter-school tournament we beat M.S.A. 12-15, 15-10, 15-12, to finish as trophy winners.

In the league we again met M.S.A. in the final game and had to win the finish as champions. We attacked from the out-set and won 15-7, 15-7.

Danny led the way through the season with some terrific serves and ferocious spikes. The setters: Alex Rollin, Matthew Hocking and David Smolin all did extremely well; and when given a good set the spikes rarely let us down. These were De-Von Binns, James "Herbie" Adderley, Chris Maiato and Richard Lines.

Colours

Re-awarded: James Adderley, Alex Rollin

New: Danny Faria, Chris Maiato, David Smolin, Matthew Hocking, Richard Lines and DeVon Binns

Juniors

Our Junior boys also played extremely well. They won their league, but finished as runners-up in the tournament. The team shows great promise for the future.

Sean Durkin did an excellent job as captain and is the M.V.P. League medals were presented to: Sean, Chris Dawson, Wesley Lindo, Patrick Graham, Andrew Simpson, Marco Bor-toli and Hywel Brown. We were also able to field "B" against the other schools "A" teams; losing only one senior, and no junior game.

Senior Girls: Saltus, coached by Bermuda Volleyball Association president LISA DRAGON, entered 2 teams in the league and tournament this year. The 'A' team finished as runners-up in both competitions. The 'B' team finished 6th in the League and 5th in the tournament. Sara Mancell was voted MVP. Team members: Sara Mancell (Capt.), Lisa Haynes, Rachael Troake, Rachael Barritt, Megan Spurling, Amanda DeCout, Carola Cooper, Lindsay Reape, Jenny Medeiros and Vanes Hardy.

NETBALL

Saltus entered 1 team in the Interschool league this year in the 15+ division. The girls placed 5th in the league which was an improvement on their performance last year. They equalled last year's performance at the Interschool tournament by making it to the semi-finals. They were beaten by the eventual champions. All stars were LISA HAYNES, SHALLAN DENNIS, RACHAEL BARRITT & LINDSAY REAPE. Team MVP was Lisa Haynes.

Team members: Lisa Haynes, Shallan Dennis, Rachael Barritt, Rachel Troake, Lindsay Reape, Jennifer Rans, Jennifer Medeiros, Maria Dixon, Melissa Butler, Samantha Adams.

Junior Girls Hockey

The first year girls won the inter-school stickwork competition for the third straight year. The Junior team, led by Caroline Black also notched their third consecutive win in the inter-school tournament.

Some 30 of our youngsters have played for Swifts H.C. in the local women's league. Swifts being a team set up by Mr. Herman-Smith and Mr. West, for Saltus girls.

Hockey 1st XI

The Seniors also played very well in the inter-school tournament. However, despite dominating proceedings, two 0-0 draws and a 4-0 win were not good enough to win the tournament.

The following represented the school in the tournament. Lisa Haynes (captain), Shallan Dennis, Kendra McDowall, Alex Tytheridge, Nicole Martin, Carola Cooper, Sara Mancell, Teresa Pantry, Maria Dixon, Tiffany Sousa, Kim Meacham, Suzanne Rego, Tracy Osborne and Samantha Adams.

Cricket

In a season hampered by exam commitments and rain our players nevertheless acquitted themselves very well.

The 1st XI had an excellent win over the Old Boys. The alumni side were 132 all out (R. Carruthers 3 for 27, D. Binns 2 for 11) and we finished at 136 for 8 (D. Binns 27, C. Maiato 26). DeVon was awarded the M.V.P.

The Juniors reached the semi-final of the schools competition, losing to Sandys by 32 runs. Dejaun Paynter returned the seasons best figures-in 18 overs he gave up 37 runs and took 7 wickets; and he scored 95 runs in 5 innings (not out twice).

Inter house Watlington won the senior cricket, and Saltus the Junior.

SOFTBALL

The girls team and the staff relax after their annual fixture

Softball-Saltus performed remarkably well in all 4 interschool tournaments. The junior girls (U.14) placed 4th out of 7 teams; the senior girls placed 3rd out of 10 teams, losing in the semifinals to the eventual champions. We entered 2 boys' teams: the B team finished 4th out of 8 and the 'A' team finished as Runners Up losing a very exciting final 12-14.

Inter House Sports

Once again the inter house Sports Day was decided on the final relays. It was an excellent day of athletics, with some tremendous individual performances.

Butterfield claimed their first victory in many years scoring a total of 430 points. Darrell and Watlington tied with 414 points, and Saltus finished with 392.

Age group champions were:
Under 13 Boys-Nick Kyme; Under 15 Girls-Suella Matthews; Under 15 Boys-Damian Simmons; Over 15 Girls-Lisa Haynes; Over 15 Boys-Andre Bean; PGY-DeVon Binns

Interschool Sports

Saltus recorded it best performance at an Interschool Track & Field Competition in many years. We finished in the top 3 in 22 events (athletes and results shown below) and broke a handful of school records.

SWIMMING

Interhouse: Darrell won their 4th consecutive interhouse swim meet, but it wasn't easy. Butterfield were still in with a chance to win before the last 2 relays but Darrell beat them and won the championship by 14 pts.

Interschool: Saltus Boys won the Interschool championship for the 17th consecutive year. They won 24 of 27 events and won overall points in each age group which helped them to an overwhelming 116 point victory over their nearest rivals. The girls were not to be left out as they won their 1st ever championship. They won overall points in the 15+ age group and team effort and determination in their relay performances helped win the trophy. They beat long time rivals BHS by 17 pts.

POST-GRADUATE YEAR 1993-94

Mr. Malcom Durrant
Post-Graduate Year Co-ordinator

The 52 students in the Class of '94 have completed a most successful year in every respect, maintaining the high standards expected of the Programme.

In terms of admission to colleges and universities-although at the time of writing offers are still coming in-PGY students continue to receive positive responses from prestigious schools throughout North America, as well as the United Kingdom. I am confident that at year's end the majority of students will be attending institutions of their first choice. In November, we took a group of 27 students to visit universities in Quebec, Ontario and Nova Scotia. In what was a very hectic ten-day trip, the students toured university campuses, had interviews with admissions personnel and faculty members, and got the 'inside scoop' from former PGY students. We were warmly welcomed wherever we went and everyone gained a great deal from the experience. Some students have already received generous scholarship awards from individual universities and, with the bulk of local awards still to be made, I anticipate even further success in this area.

PGY students have continued to make significant contributions to both the school and local communities. Details of their accomplishments can be found elsewhere in this yearbook-their involvement in various inter-school competitions, their participation in the introduction of the Young Enterprise Scheme, their attainment of gold awards in the Duke of Edinburgh Programme, for example.

Above-De Von Binns-Outstanding Teen
Below-Carola Cooper-Pan-Am Games

Above-Jennie Medeiros-Miss Bermuda Teen
Below-Sara Mancell-Rotary Exchange

However, there are other significant achievements equally worthy of mention. At the annual Teen Conference, DeVon Binns was acclaimed as Bermuda's Outstanding Teenager of the year, whilst Sara Mancell, Lisa Haynes, Melissa Butler, Kim Beacham, Michael Starling, and Rajae Shaker were also recognized by their peers. Sara has, in addition, been selected by Rotary International to be an exchange student for the coming year in Switzerland where, I am certain, she will be an excellent ambassador for both Saltus and Bermuda. In sailing, Carola Cooper has qualified for the Pan-American Games and will be representing Bermuda in Greece this summer at the Youth World Championships. In other sports, PGY students have been well-represented at both the house and inter-school levels, and several were selected as All-Stars. When the Bermuda Schools Sports Federation presented its inaugural Scholar Athlete Awards to those students who played for a school team whilst maintaining or exceeding a B average during the term of participation, 27 of the Saltus recipients were from the Post-Graduate Year. This success, however, was still not enough to bring that elusive victory in the annual Staff v. PGY soccer game. At least this year's conditions of pouring rain and howling winds saved the students from yet another defeat when the game ended in a scoreless draw.

Fundraising for Graduation has been not only profitable but also important in developing the corporate spirit we seek to foster in the Post-Graduate Year. Following the success of last year's venture, PGY students organized and chaperoned a Christmas dance for J6 and J7 students which was so well-received that we were asked to arrange a Valentine's dance in the Easter term. Weekly bake-sales and the manning of the 'lucking-stool' at the Halloween Fair also brought in additional revenue, yet the major fund-raiser continues to be the fashion show which has come to be an expected annual event. 'No Limits', Fashion '94, was an undoubted success, matching-and perhaps even surpassing technically-the standard of excellence and professionalism set by previous years. Whilst much of the credit for this must go to the students, I would like to express my appreciation on their behalf to Mrs. Judy Rollin for everything she did to provide two evenings of "slick" entertainment which were a great advertisement for the Programme and a valuable learning experience for the students. Plans are now well underway to put these funds to good use at this year's Graduation which is to take place at the Hamilton Princess Hotel towards the end of June with Mr. Peter Woolcock as the guest speaker.

In closing, I would like to thank on behalf of the students all of the staff-administrative, teaching and secretarial-for everything they have done to help the Programme run smoothly. In particular, my special thanks go to Mrs. Christina Wrigley for her invaluable assistance and support throughout the year.

After a long and tiring flight, which was accompanied by good service from the crew of Continental, we finally arrived in Paris . . .

Travelling by bus to the Louvre, we visited this museum which today safeguards one of the world's finest art collections. There we saw many famous paintings, one of which was the famous "Mona Lisa" by Leonardo da Vinci. It was a sight to be described as breathtaking . . .

After an exciting dinner in a traditional French cafe, the group proceeded to the Hotel Ibis in Gentilly. As tired as I was, I realized that raising my hand to be part of the French Tour was going to be one of the best decisions I had ever made.

Day three:

10.15-we visited the Cathedral of Notre Dame, where our unusually honest guide warned us that the church is full of thieves!

11.00-Picture stop at the Eiffel Tower

11.40-On the bus heading out of Paris . . . destination Versailles.

12.30-arrived and making the long pilgrimage to McDonalds!

1.00-In the Palace of Versailles. Our guide takes some of the gleam off the merry picture of court life with tales of chamber pots and trigger-happy kings.

4.00-return to Paris and dinner.

8.30-trip up the Eiffel Tower. (Q. Why do all elevators go up and never down?)

10.00-trip down the Seine on a river boat. Kevin Dallas

Day six: Much to our dismay we had to get up early again . . . 6.30 am! It was a 5 hour bus ride to St. Malo, our next port of call, broken up by a Turkish toilet break (flush the toilet and run!) and a taste of French music on the bus. We were able to walk around the town, eat lunch and do some shopping. Rachael Barritt

Day seven: We travelled from St. Malo along the northern coast to Mont St.

Michel, an island sanctuary connected to the mainland at low tide only. We toured the peaceful monastery, glad to get out of the rain, and had lunch in the town, before we left for the Normandy Beaches. There we visited the U.S. Memorial. Leaving here after a peaceful stroll around the cemetery, we journeyed on to Bayeux. We saw the marvelous exhibition of the Bayeux Tapestry, the highlight of the trip for me, and then continued on to our hotel in Caen. Steve Morgan

Day eight: We returned to Paris and had free time in the afternoon so our group took the Metro and walked around the Pompidou Centre, watching the street acts with amusement. Then we walked a long way to Musee D'Orsay, a beautiful building which houses all the Impressionist works of art . . . Van Gogh, Monet etc. We then met up with the rest of our tour group at a restaurant near the Hard Rock Cafe, and finally returned to the hotel, Royal Voltaire, in the Bastille area, via Pere La Chaise, the cemetery where Jim Morrison of The Doors is buried . . .

As a prelude to Bastille Day we were kept awake by fireworks throughout the night! Linde Morgan

We look forward to taking the next group of students to France in 1995.

DEBATING

*Stacey Branum and Sara Mancell with Lord
Waddington.*

On 8th January 1994, the annual Secondary School's Debating Competition, organized by The Junior Service League, was held at the Stonington Campus of the Bermuda College.

Saltus again sent two teams to the competition; two seasoned debaters, Rachael Barritt and Selena Mello and two debating novices, Stacy Branum and Sara Mancell. Sara, our reserve, kindly stepped in at the last minute, proving that lack of preparation concentrates the mind wonderfully!

The competition was tough this year but the teams rose good-humouredly to the challenge, taking on two rounds of the prepared motion—"This House believes that Mankind is the next dinosaur" and one impromptu round—the puzzling "This House believes that small is beautiful". Berkeley proved to be particularly tenacious opponents, armed with a talent for Points of Information. Rachael and Selena won two out of three rounds, and Stacy and Sara, the "outsiders", won three. This record of straight wins earned them a place in the final to debate yet another motion 'This House believes that Bermuda should be used to test environmentally friendly products'.

Sara and Stacy sparred bravely with Berkeley over their definitions in a lively debate, but lost narrowly to finish in second place. Congratulations to both teams. We hope that one or more of these students will go on to represent Bermuda in New Zealand at the 1994 World Schools Debating Championships.

Junior debating has continued to develop, with a new crop of talented first years. First and second years have already shown growing confidence and precision in their debating skills and there are plans afoot to test these skills in some inter-school debates. A junior debating club meets weekly, with motions chosen by the students—ranging from "Should Bermuda become independent" to "The real spirit of sport has been lost", in the wake of the Winter Olympics.

I learned so much from the Miss Teen Bermuda Pageant. I realized that a contest is not based on looks alone; rather, it focuses on intelligence, confidence and personality.

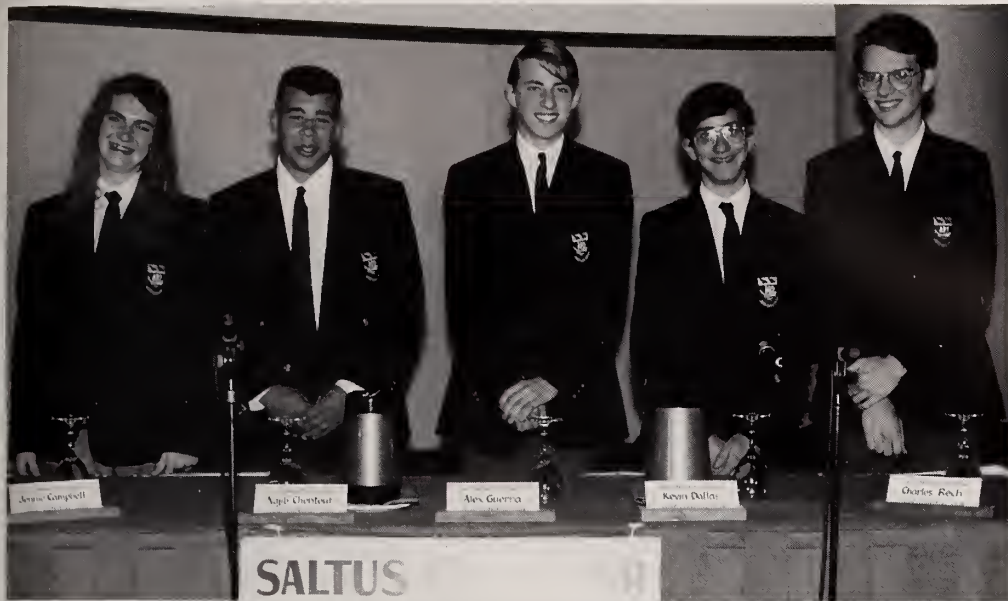

I learned how to present myself as a young lady, which can be the key to success. I learned how to have faith in myself and to stand firmly on my beliefs.

An important factor that brought me to victory was the support, encouragement and love of my family and friends. I knew that whatever happened, they'd still be proud of me.

Most importantly, I learned that we, the youth, can make a positive difference in society, and as Miss Teen Bermuda 1994, I hope to achieve that.

INTER-SCHOOL QUIZ CHAMPIONS 1994

This year's school quiz team comprising of JENNIE CAMPBELL, KEVIN DALLAS, ALEX GUERRA, CHARLES RECH and captain NAJIB CHENTOUF are to be heartily congratulated on their outstanding performance in the 1994 Inter Schools Quiz Competition which is staged annually by the Department of Youth, Sport and Recreation.

The team began meeting on a regular basis back in September to prepare for the competition about Bermuda which entails five rounds of questions about local Geography and History, Personalities, Art and Music, Wildcard, Sports and Current Events. The team members went through a gruelling eighty hours coaching with Mrs. Wrigley plus the many hours each team member put in at home to learn all the relevant information. Their hard work paid off! During the final, four of the five team members had perfect scores and the Saltus team was able to pick up valuable points by rotation when other school teams failed to give the correct answer.

With such a convincing victory, the Saltus team walked away from the final competition with the majority of the prizes which included two IBM computers for the school, lunch aboard the MV Horizon cruise ship, $1000 free advertising in the Royal Gazette for the school, $250 to be spent on books for the school library, a $50 gift voucher for each team member for the Stationery Store, 40 weeks supply of 5 Royal Gazettes for the school and a free fruit juice and soda for each student in the school from Barritts.

Well done, team-you all deserved this fine victory for your hard work!

TEAM COACH-MRS. WRIGLEY

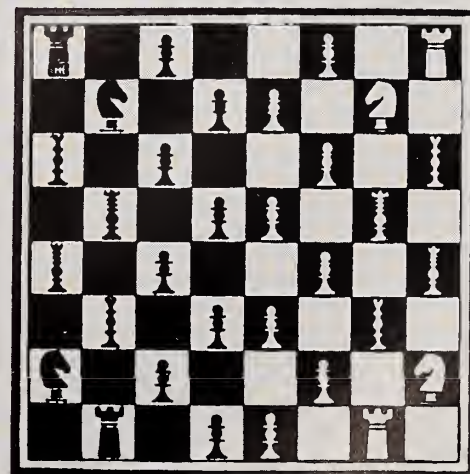

This year has seen a definite revival in chess at the school. We have some talented and interested younger students keen on playing who will ensure that chess will continue to flourish.

Back in March at the individual Junior Chess Tournament hosted by the Bermuda Chess Association held at MSA, SHIMON ALKON came close to retaining his island-wide junior chess title for the fourth year running by coming second in this competition. MICHAEL STARLING also played very well and came third overall.

More recently in the annual Friendship Trophy competition which is an inter schools tournament, the Saltus team of SHIMON ALKON (Captain), MICHAEL STARLING, SEAN ABRAMS, GAVIN LLEWELLYN and BRIAN DEICHMANN convincingly beat all the other schools to retain their titles as the island wide team champions.

Shimon and Michael leave this year to go off to college and they will both be a sad loss to the strong team we have been able to field over the last five years. We appreciate all that they have both contributed to chess at Saltus. Keep your game in check, mates!!

We have had a very full year of competitions. The highlight of our school year is the annual secondary schools art show organized by the Bermuda Society of Arts. This year's show was a very special one as Prince Philip the Duke of Edinburgh visited the schools exhibition when he and the Queen visited City Hall on Wednesday March, 9th, 1994. I was introduced to His Royal Highness and in turn introduced him to my two top Post-Graduate Year students Michael Starling and Michael Walsh.

Both Michael Walsh and Trevor Leitch were among the winners in a war on drugs poster competition organized by Chairman John Dale and his Bermuda Inter-service Community Awareness Day Committees for a War-on-Drugs Show at the National Stadium held on Saturday 5th February, 1994. Michael Walsh with his 'Living clean Living Free' poster won himself an I.B.M. Personal Computer from Bermuda Computer Services. Jason Farrington won a pedal bicycle from Wheels and Trevor Leitch won the Best Overall Entry. Michael Starling and Alexander Winfield came second in this well publicized local event all boys having their posters featured in the Royal Gazette newspaper. In March in the Ministry of Education's International Children's Drawing Competition "Natural Disasters in Bermuda" organized by the Emergency Measures Organization eleven Salus students had the honour of having their work selected to be hung in a special exhibition at the City Hall. Ryan Davidge, George Spurling, Kondwani Williams, Daniele Bortoli, all in the 11-12 year age group. Aisha Swan, Fiona Herring, Nekeisha Hayward, Arlenda Fishenden, Trevor Leitch (again!) and Nick Kyme, all in the 14-15 year old age group.

The exhibition was opened by Mr. John Kelly, Deputy Governor on Monday 14th March and Aisha Swan had the distinction of her work being sent for exhibition in Yokohama, Japan in May 1994. This is an exhibition that will be seen by world leaders, scientists and others at the International Decade for Natural Disaster Reduction (IDNDR).

Putting this yearbook together is a mammoth task and it would not have been possible without the help of a great many people. In the senior school, Marianne Ridley did the Duke of Edinburgh and the science pages. Jon Beard and Lesley Cherry laid out the sports pages.

In the junior school, Peter Le Page took over from John Coakley and did a splendid job, taking responsibility for co-ordinating and laying out a major section of the book.

At Saltus Cavendish, the staff there did their usual magnificent effort producing pages that were professionally constructed and visually interesting. Mrs. Shirley Bacon co-ordinated this herculean task ably assisted by Mrs. Joan Paradine.

Finally I would like to offer my own personal thanks to the secretarial staff in the senior school—Mrs. Adams and Mrs. Boorman—for their patience and care in assisting me with all the text.

A major problem in producing a yearbook like this is getting photographs of all the staff and students. Most are quite co-operative and many very photogenic. However, some prove much more difficult and I leave you with some of my failures!!!

A Final Word from the Headgirl.

This year has been one of the most exciting and busiest for all of us in Post-Graduate Year.

Everyone has enjoyed a year of fun and hard work. Mr. Durrant has kept us on our toes; and in between different committee meetings, various sporting and extracurricular activities and trying to keep the Gibbons Room tidy—it is hard to believe we found time for fun.

To my fellow classmates, I would like to wish the best of luck in future endeavors and pursuits, and say congratulations on a most successful year, and remember—there are no limits!

Rachael Barritt
